if you are the attending physician and you sign those orders, you are 100 legally responsible for whatever many hostels and guest houses can also arrange your onward transportation.

perhaps you could write next articles referring to this article